the English Challenger.

Speed.

Up to noon to-day nothing had been

Justice Cullen, of the Supreme Court,

BURGLARS ON TRIAL.

ware.

While Miller and Weissman were in the Queens County Jall several weeks ago, Miller's brother and two other members of the gang attempted to break into the jail to liberate them.

Will of Frederick L. Ames

BOSTON, Sept. 19 .- The will of Fred-

The real estate and personal property n North Easton is given to his widow.

in North Easton is given to his widow. The Boston residence is already her property, and the personal property in it and the stable property on Newbury street are given to her, also $50,000 outright. The residue of the estate is given in trust to Samuel Carr. Oliver Ames, 24, and Oliver W. Mink, for the benefit of the widow and children, the trust estate being first subjected to an annuity of $20,000 to the widow.

Dilworth Dring at Bellevue.

George P. Dilworth, the negro, of $51

West Fortieth street, who charged that his skull was fractured by a policeman's club, is dying at Believue.

ON A STILL HUNT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1893,

"Cinoniation Paales Onos to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

MORRIS'S GAY LIFE.

A Son of the Royal Arcanum Examiner Held for Swindling.

settle his Dill. Vi to be settle his Dill. Vi to do so, but said he would get the money in New York.

Mrs. Green was detained at the hotel and a clerk accompanies, alorris to New York. They had no sooner left than Detectives Heldelberg and Nugent called with a warrant. They were informed of Morris's destinction, and arrested him on Broadway, near Twenty-third street. Morris denied his identity in court when questioned. He gave his name as George Allen, a salesman, thirty-five years old, and his residence as Washington, D. C.

One Edward Green and his wife occupled a handsome two-story cottage in a side street near Pacific avenue in Green.

one Edward Green and nis wite occu-pied a handsome two-story cottage in a side street near Pacific avenue in Green-ville N. J., last Spring. Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. Logan, a widow, and young Morris lived with them. Morris was said to be a medical student.

them. Morris was said to be a medical student.

One Sunday afternoon the Greens and Morris hired a livery rig and took a drove to Bayonne. They entered a side door of a saloon, and had drinks.

At midnight they drove home, and a policeman who halted them was informed that Green had taken laudanum. A clerk trom Lyons & Beighler's drug store and a physician were called and Green was saved from death.

Mrs. Green said that her husband had poured laudanum into a glass of beer and drank it. When Green recoveret he refused to make any statement.

ment.
A few days after this the Greens moved to New York. Morris and Mrs. Logan disappeared. Their departure was followed by an advertisement in a local newspaper announcing the marriage of Miss Logan and Morris.

MORE TIME FOR PEDDLERS. The Mayor Asked to Extend the Ourbstone Market Closing Hour. A committee of the Peddlers' Protecroy to-day and asked him to extend the time for closing the curbstone markets in Hester, Ludlow and Bayard streets, from 10 to 12 o'clock, during the coming Hebrew holidays. Register Levy acted as spokesman for the Committee. The Mayor referred the Committee to the Police Department, which has the matter under control.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Sept. 19. -The Port Townsend National Bank failed to open yesterday. A notice announced the suspension as the result of the suspension of the Commercial of the suspension of the Commercial National and Portland Savings Bank of Portland. Total Habilities of the Port Townsend National Bank are less than $100,000; assets between $120,000 and $130,-000. The officials say they will resume in thirty days.

A Highwayman for Each. DOBBS FERRY, N. Y., Sept. 19.-John Garry and William Mack, of this place, reported this morning that while driving along a lonely road on the outskirts of the village at midnight, their horse was stopped by two highwaymen and they were dragged from the wagon and forced to aurrender their valuables and $50 in cash. There is no clue to the highwaymen.

House Are Being Vaccinated.

Many Cases of the Pest Thought to What Mr. Watson Says About Her Come from Neighboring Cities.

Small-pox has broken out in the handsome apartment-house 403 West One heard of Valkyrie, the challenger Hundred and Twenty-third street. The for the America's Cup, from Fire Is-barking.

The Hamburg authorities are confident that the cases that have occurred are of a sporadic character, such as are reported at other continental and English ports.

The last steamship to leave Hamburg for this port was the Rugia, which sailed Sept. 17. Cuxhaven is about seventy miles from Hamburg.

THE CHOLERA ABROAD.

Three Deaths at Budapest - New Cases in Galicia.

BUDAPEST, Sept. 19 .- Six cases of cholera and three deaths from the disviense occurred in this city yesterday. VIENNA, Sept. 19.—In the province of Galicia there were twenty-six cases of cholera and sixteen deaths from the disease yesterday.

NEW ELECTION INSPECTORS.

Democrate Get 2,284 and Republicans 1,142. At a meeting of the Police Board this afternoon the Commissioners appointed 3.26 Inspectors of Elections; of which 2,284 were Democrats and the rest Re putlicans.

The polling places were also designated With few exceptions, they are the same as last year.

George L. Rives, of 14 West Thirty-eighth street, sent a cneck for $100 to the Commissioners to be deposited in the pension fund. Mr. Rives was one of the victims of Frank Davis, the notorious flat-house thief, who was captured last Spring.

Fifteen Caught in a Raid. Fifteen prisoners, all women but one, were arraigned in Jefferson Market Court this morning as the result of a raid made last right by the Mercer street police. At 245 Wooster street Mary Smith and one inmate were arrested; at 220 Wooster street, Mary Rose, four inmates and a man were captured; at inmates and a man were captured, at 230 Wooster street Mary Clark ind four inmates were arristed; from 215 and 120 Greene street Jane Banella and Saral. Brown were taken. All of the alleged proprietresses were hell. Some of the inmates were fined and some were dis-

Dangerous Dereilot Reported. The steamship Westhall, from Hamburg, to-day, reports having passed in latitude 41.32, longitude 65.45, the wreck of the schooner Annie S. Conant, from Brunswick, bound for Boston. She was waterlogged, dismasted and abandoned and is floating directly in the path of Sick-Room Appliances.

RIKER makes a specialty of sick-room com-forts. RUBBER GOODS, TRUSSES and SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS. Best quality 50 per cent. less than elsewhere. 2nd st. and 6th ave.

JANITRESS HAS SMALL-POX. ON THE LOOKOUT FOR VALKYRIE EIGHT PEOPLE DEAD.

Tenants in an Uptown Apartment | Yachts Go Down the Bay to Meet | And Twenty Injured in a Wreck on the Illinois Central.

> Second Section of an Express Crashes Into the First.

> A " Dead " Steeper Telescoped-Was

A Son of the Royal Aronnum Exaniner Rod for Swinding.

Remail-post has broken out in the handmany agartment-tokens of Week, The statistic fround there is an intelly by inthe statistic fround the statistic by inthe statistic fround the statistic by inthe statistic fround the statistic by inthe statistic fround the flats of the Martin of Service (Or. 1 to extend the statistic by inthe statistic fround the statistic by inthe Royal Aronnum in the State of the Police Current the statistic of the Royal Aronnum in the State of the Police Current the statistic of the Police Current the statistic of the Royal Aronnum in the State of the Police Current the
the Police Current the State of the Police Current the
the Police Current the State of the Police Current the Stat

cous around bead and face.

The accident happened in this way:
An illinois Central passenger train had stopped to take water at a tank a quarter of a mile north of Manteno.

The first section of train No. 6 came date of what Valkyrie can do in racing shape against the Vigilant as anything else. You cannot figure on such things.

Mr. Watson was comfident that the date of the first race would be post-poned. He thought that the more miles, and it is said the arrow would be amounted to the first race would be most bone to the f

The first section left Chicago about 8.15 o'clock. It was followed a few minutes later by the second section.

There wis a "dead" sleeper on the rear end of the first train, or, in other words, the car was empty. The car ahead of it was the day coach, and contained some forty or fifty passengers.

The second section of the train crashed into the "dead" sleeper, driving it forward, through the day coach. It completely telescoped the car from end to pletely telescoped the car from end to To Take Testimony on Father Dent's words, the car was empty. The car continue on to their destination. Brooklyn, this morning signed an order for the appointment of a appointment of commission to Rome, Italy, to take testimony in the suit of Rev. end. Father Francis Dent against the Order The wreck was the worst that has ocof St. Francis. The suit has been pendcurred on the Illinois Central system for ing in the Brooklyn courts for over a twenty years. One of the pitiful sights around the wreck was the grief of Mrs. Chris Kimmel, herself probably fatally injured. When she was rescued the light of the The commission is directed to William S. Jones, Consul-General of the United States at Rome.

The persons to be examined in Rome are the Secretary Archivist of the Friars Minor of the Order of St. Francis; the Secretary Archivist of the Bosed of Bishops and Regulars; the Minister-General and Director-General of the Order of Friars Minor of St. Francis; the Cardinal-Prefect of the Board of Bishops and Regulars, and several other ciericals connected with the Order of St. Francis and Board of Bishops and Regulars in Rome.

On the first trial of the case Father Dent produced a copy of an alleged rescript which showed that his expulsion from the Order was lilegal. The defense withdrew a juror, with the privilege of a new trial. It is to obtain definite testimony as to the alleged rescript that the Commission is ordered. lantern shone on the features of her husband who had been killed by her side. She was so badly crushe could scarcely make a sound, but the words she could articulate were tearful appeals to the rescuers and nurses to find her husband's body.

She knew he was dead, but feared the cars would catch fire and his body

MISS LEWIS SEEKS DAMAGES.

Holds a Chemical Company Respon sible for Poisoned Crabs, Alice Lewis, daughter of Mrs. And Lewis, of Culver avenue, who with three others died from the effects of

BURGLARS ON TRIAL.

Miller and Weissman to Answer for St-aling Grosjean's Silver.

John Miller and Frederick Weissman were placed on trial before Judge Garretson in the Queens Couty Court of Sersions, Long Island City, to-day, on a charge of burglary. The prisoners belong to the gang of burglars who, it is alleged, broke into and robbed the house of Millionaire Florian Grosjean, at Woodhaven, of $3,000 worth of silverware.

While Miller and Weissman were in the Company drains chemicals, alleged to be of a poisonous character, into the Morris Canal. The water in which the supposed poisoned crabs were boiled was taken from the canal near that the Company drains chemicals, alleged to be of a poisonous character, into the Morris Canal. The water in which the supposed poisoned crabs were boiled was taken from the canal near that the Company drains chemicals, alleged to be of a poisonous character, into the Morris Canal. The water in which the supposed poisoned to be of a poisonous character, into the Morris Canal. The water in which the supposed poisoned crabs were boiled was taken from the canal near that the Company drains chemicals, alleged to be of a poisonous character, into the Morris Canal. The water in which the supposed poisoned to be of a poisoned, has instituted legal proceedings against the West Bergen Chemical Works for $5,000 damages.

Into the Morris Canal. The water in that the Company drains chemicals, alleged to be of a poisoned, has instituted legal proceedings against the West Bergen Chemical Works for $5,000 damages.

WANT DIRECTUM SET FREE.

The Great Stallion's Owners Move to Vacate an Attachment.

A motion was heard to-day by Judge erick L. Ames was filed to-day at Taun- McAdam in the Superior Court to vacate ton, It contains no public bequests, the attachment secured by Harry S. the attachment secured by Harry S.
Henry, a Pennsylvania turfman, against the famous trotting stallion Directum during the last meeting at Fleetwood Park.
Henry had a suit for $3,500 pending against the Messrs. Salisbury, owners of Directum, and got the attachment against the trotter on that ground.
Judge McAdam reserved his decision in the case.

Fel! from a Window. Annie McEntee, aged thirty-five, fell from a third-story window at her home, 259 Hudson street, this morning and was removed to St. Vincent's Hospital, where it was found that she was suffering from concussion of the spine and a bad scalp wound.

THE Emerson Shoe Store opens to-day, 240 R'way, THE Emerson Shoe Store opens to-day, 240 R'way, B'klyn stores, 359 Fulton, Bedford ava. & B'way,

The Republican State Committee still hunting for a candidate.

iast night, but no one could tell who it was, and a canvass failed to disclose it.
At a meeting of the Board of Health it was decided that no outside physicians were needed yet, and no volunteer nurses. Surgeon Murray has four nurses en route, and will get more if necessary.

IN CONGRESS TO-DAY.

Another Silver Coinage Substitute for Repeal in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 .- In the Senate this morning notice was given of substitute for the Repeal bill by Mr.

Squire (Rep., Wash.). It permits the deposit of silver bullion by its owner and the coinage lion by its owner and the coinage thereof into standard silver dollars, of which he is to receeive only the amount corresponding to the metal's commercial value. The coinage is not to exceed four millions a month, or two hundred millions in all; the dollars to be legal tender, and no certificates to be issued. In the House to-day the Democrats lacked five votes of a quorum, and Republican filibustering against the Federal Election Law Repeal bill continued.

FIVE VICTIMS OF FIRE.

LONDON, Sept. 19 .- A small house in the Whitechapel district of this city was burned at an early hour this morn-and four women were found. It is sup-posed that these people were asleep with his family, and accompanied by when the fire broke out, and were over- James T. Kilbreth, Collector of the Port come by the smoke before they had chance to escape.

Boy Drinks Carbolic Acid. Little Johnny Sullivan, aged four years, obtained possession of a bottle of carbolic acid at his home, this First of carbolic acid at his home, law First avenue, at 9.30 o'clock this morning, and before it could be taken from him imbibed the poison. He was removed to the restience of Dr. Sexal, 335 East Seventy-second street, where prompt measures sayed his life. He is now at home again, and the carbolic acid bottle has been placed beyond his reach.

Drowned in North River. Thirty-eighth street. He was about forty years old and 5 feet 8 inches in height. He wore a dark suit of clothes, black socks, lace shoes, white shirt and white collar and a black tie. On his handkerchief were the letters "O. V."

$17.00 to Chicago and Return

FEVER-STRICKEN BRUNSWICK. PERRY IS ALREADY A CITY.

About 5,000 People Still Remain 25,000 People and Three Daily Nominated To-Day in Place of RIOT OVER A PEACH.

passer-by.
Inside of two minutes there was a small riot going on around the fruit stand, every one coming along taking one side or the other.
Policeman Reilly happened along and arrested the two principals in the fight, Murphy and Flagler.

KILBRETH OFF FOR CHICAGO.

in a Private Car with Gen. Felix Agnus, of Baltimore.

RALTIMORE, Sept. 19.-Gen. Fellx Agnus, editor-in-chief of The American, James T. Kilbrein, Collector of the Fort of New York, and family, making in all a party of ten persons, left here for chicago and the World's Fair this morn-ing, over the Baltimore and Ohio Rail-road, in Vice-President C. K. Lord's private car Delaware. Collector Kilbreth is a brother-in-law of Gen. Agnus. The party will make a stay of two weeks in Chicago.

BIG FAILURE IN ST. PAUL.

Ar unknown man was found drowned at 7.30 A. M. to-day at the foot of West ment this morning.

the Late Judge Blatchford.

Von Aten. of Rhode Island, Named for Ambassader to Italy.

ments of postmasters.

MAS. DESMOND GETS A DIVORCE. Her Husband Deserted Her for An other Man's Wife.

Minnie L. Desmond secured an abso-Hands Got Into a Fight.

Charles Flagler and Nicholas Murphy were fined in the Tombs Court to-day for fighting.

Flagler bought a peach yesterday after ternoon from an Italian fruit peddler in Greenwich street.

A dispute arose between them as to the payment for the peach, and while it was in progress Murphy came up and appointed himself arbitrator. He advised Flagler to pay for the peach. When Flagler refused to do so Murphy struck him in the eye.

Then a passer-by struck Murphy. The Italian fruit peddler sprang to Murphys defense and struck the interfering passer-by.

Inside of two minutes there was a small rich work in the court of Common Pleas to-day after evidence had been receiving the about the hand of the Associated Trades and Workingmen. Reform League, of New York, opened the hear-evidence in the pedice had been furnished as to his misconduct. Her husband left her about five years ago to live with Amy Rose Pulford, wife of Montague G. Pulford work city demanding that the duty on vegetables, products of the Bermuda affections. He got a juagment against the removed or greatly erduced, so that the middle-class and working for almages for altenating his wife's soilt.

Mr. Desmond did not appear to defend his wife's soilt.

Am true pointed himself arbitrator. He advised him in the eye.

Mr. Desmond did not appear to defend his wife's room was the following:

My Darling Little W—— If I have not the fullest fish in you I should do something. As intended himself arbitration is a soil to the fullest fish in you I should do something. As intended himself arbitration is a soil to the fullest fish in you I should do something. As intended himself arbitration is a soil to the fullest fish in you I should do something. As intended himself arbitration is a soil to the fullest fish in you I should do something. As intended himself arbitration is a soil to the fullest fish in you I should do something. As intended himself arbitration is a soil to the fullest fish in you I should do something. As intended himself arbitr lute divorce from her husband, Edward his wife's suit.

Among the letters found by Pulford in his wife's room was the following:

My Darling Little W— If I have not the fullest faith in you I should do something. As long as Amy sticks to Ted I shall be honored. As true as there is a heaven above I mean to make you and dear little Muggins happy, for I am very proud of you. I intend making you an honorable woman, one whom I shall always feel stion.

Henry T. Oxnard, of Nebraska, spoke next against the repeal of the sugar pext against the repeal of the sugar; continue had been fixed and appropriations had ben authodized to pay the bounty.

T. R. Cutler, a Utah beet-augar manual honorable woman, one whom I shall always feel stion. his wife's room was the following:

My Darling Little W— If I have not the fullest faith in you I should do something. As long as Amy sticks to Ted I shall be honored.

As true as there is a heaven above I mean to make you and dear little Muggins happy, for I am very proud of you. I intend making you an honorable woman, one whom I shall always feel proud of as mine. With fondest love to you and little kitten, your own loving.

Another one reads:

Another one reads:

Another one reads:

My Darling Wife I have made up my mind to throw my life in with you, and all I ask from you is loving fidelity through our living together as wife and husband, and I on my part swear to be all that you may ever wish of me. Yours, Italiovingly.

This mad life of mine is driving me crasy, cannot sleep, for my thoughts are always of Amy. God bless you is my wish. Pulford is a theatrical agent. His suit against Desmond was not defended and a Sheriff's jury gave him a verdict of $10,000. Desmond was formerly a cot-

ALL SOUGHT DIVORCES.

Stories of Marital Unhappiness Weard by Judge McAdam To-Day.

A number of small divorce cases came recognizance. up for trial this morning before Judge MISSIONS HURT BY THE PANIC. McAdam in the Special Term of the Superior Court.

Mast, Buford & Burwell, Carriage

Makers. Assign.

ST. PAUL. Sept. 19.—Mast, Buford & Burwell, the big carriage manufacturing concern of this city, made an assignment this morning.

No figures yet obtainable.

French Delegates See the City. The thirty-four French labor representatives, who are guests at the Hotel Rendered a reception by the Socialists. The visitors will probably start for Chicago to-morrow.

Superior Court.

Not one of them consumed more than ten minutes of the Court's time. Jennie minutes of the Court's time. Jennie Mrs. Dr. Purgrer, of clizabeth, N. J., presided. The Treasurer's report showed 360,290 receipts from April to September, a decrease of $18,080 from last report. This as accounted for by the financial decrease in the number of applicants for administon to the Mission schools.

Weather Porecast.

Local forecast for the thirty-six bours ending at s.P. M. Wednesday: For southeastern New York, including Long Island, also for Connecting the defendants appeared. Decision in both Chicago to-morrow.

The superior Court.

Not one of them consumed more than ten minutes of the Court's time. Jennie Missions met at $5 Fifth avenue. Mrs. Dr. Purgrer, of clizabeth, N. J., presided. The Treasurer's report showed $60,290 receipts from April to September, a decrease of $18,080 from last report. This as accounted for by the financial decrease of $18,080 from last report. This as accounted for by the financial stored as week alimony. As a week alimony on the ground of inhuman treatment.

Lizzie Thomas told the Court that her chusband, George Thomas, had knocked her daw several times and had thrown her out of the house. She secured as separation from her husband, James P. Lamb, and $60,290 receipts from April to September, a decrease of $18,080 from last report. This as accounted for by the financial decrease in the number of a pulleants and the court had knocked by the divorce from John Van Wie on statutory at a pulleant special court of the house. She secured as a week alimony on the ground of inhuman

MAASDAM OVERDUE

The Royal Netherlands Liner Several Days Behind Time-

With Good Weather She Should Have Got In Last Friday.

Her Agents, However, Think She, Will Turn Up All Right.

Grave anxiety is beginning to be felt for the safety of the Netherlands-American Steam Navigation Company's steam ship Maasdam, which is now several days overdue.

The Maasdam, while not a particularly fast vessel, has been noted for the regularity with which she has made her trips. Only once before in her long career, has she caused her owners any career, has she caused her owners any anxiety.

The Massdam left Rotherdam Sept. 5 at 10.30 A. M., and was sighted off the laie of Wight the day following. Since that time nothing has been seen of her. The Massdam is commanded by Capt. Aldert Potjer, and when she left Rotterdam not a single berth was without an occupant.

ANOTHER MISSING STEAMSHIP. anxiety in London Over the Hern

LONDON, Sept. 19 .- Considerable anxicty is felt in maritime circles regarding the safety of the British steamer Horn Head, Capt. Scott. The Horn Head sailed from Baltimore

Aug. 19 for Dublin, and went out of Hampton Roads the day following. She should have arrived at her port of destination two weeks ago, but nothing has een heard of her since she left Hampton Roads. yesterday at the rate of 80 per cent.

IDA RAY CROSS-EXAMINED.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 19.—There are now 25,000 persons at Perry. All the land adjoining the town-site has been staked off into lots, and the Cherokee allotments at Wharton, half a mile away, have been put on the market platted for a townsite, and several hundered so and 100 to 1400 each. Lots are selling in Perry at $250 and $250 and and he was taken back to Ludlow Street Jail. His young wife is in this city and almost heartbroken. The examination will be continued Oct. 3. TO-DAY'S TARIFF HEARING Vegetables from Bermuda.

KILBRETH GETS THE JEWELRY. Judge Benedict Decides Against I ugene and Jeanne Leroux.

Judge Benedict, of the United States

Circuit Court, in Brooklyn, ordered today that the jewelry taken from Eugens and Jeanne Leroux be turned over to Collector Kilbreth. The Collector asserted that the jewelry had been smuggled into the port.

The Lerouxs were arrested early in April with a large amount of jewelry in their possession. It was appraised at $100.000. A subsequent examination showed that a large portion of the gems were of paste, and the value was reduced to $30.00. The Lerouxs claim that they bought the fewelry from a man of the name of Flamont, whom they met in a west side hotel. They have been released upon their own recognizance. day that the jewelry taken from Eugene uperior Court.

Not one of them consumed more than The Women's Executive Committee of Home Missions met at 53 Fifth avenue.

Head, from Baltimore.

Denies that She Was Jealeus Be-cause Wilbank Married Another. The examination in the case of Arthur charged with forging the signature of Ida Ray to a money order, was continued to-day before United States Commissioner Alexander. At the previous

A New York League Asks for Free

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 .- A. H. Cal-